Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library (WWPL) to host author book talk

STAUNTON, VA – The WWPL is pleased to host author Rebecca Boggs Roberts on Monday, April 24th at 7:00 pm. Roberts will be discussing her book UNTOLD POWER: The Fascinating Rise and Complex Legacy of First Lady Edith Wilson. This book explores the life of a beautiful, brilliant, charismatic, catty, and calculating individual, a complicated figure whose personal quest for influence reshaped the position of First Lady into one of political prominence forever. This book has received positive reviews and acclaim from numerous publications, such as The Washington Post, NPR, The Wall Street Journal, and The Washingtonian.

Join us at our Library and Research Center at 235 E Beverley St, Staunton, VA, or via Zoom for this FREE event. Please register online at givebutter.com/Untold-Power-Book-Talk. Donations are encouraged but not required, and may also be made at the registration link.

About the author: Rebecca Boggs Roberts is an award-winning educator, author, and speaker, and is a leading historian of American women's suffrage and civic participation. Additional publications include Suffragists in Washington, DC: The 1913 Parade and the Fight for the Vote, The Suffragist Playbook: Your Guide to Changing the World, and Historic Congressional Cemetery.

The Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library and Museum is an educational institution dedicated to the study of the life of President Wilson and times in which he lived. In addition to welcoming museum visitors from around the world, the Presidential Library produces online and in-person educational programming for people of all ages. The Museum is located at 20 N. Coalter Street, Staunton VA. For additional information, please contact Karen Dodson, Special Assistant for Development Initiatives at 540-885-0897 ext. 113 or visit www.woodrowwilson.org.
